YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46th CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—Senator Edmunds moved that when the Senate adjourn to-day, it meet on Monday next, to-morrow being Good Friday

Senator Davis, of W. Va.: There is a good deal of business before the Senate, and unless there is some special reason, I object.

Senator Whyte gave a reason that to-morrow is Good Friday.

Senator Davis: I did not hear that.

Senator Kernan: We adjourn over a day in honor of the great men of our own time. Let us do as much to honor the day which our christian world commemorates as that of the death of our Saviour

Senator Davis: I withdraw my objection.

The motion was agreed to.

Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, introduced a joint resolution providing for a commission to consider and report what legislation is needed for the better regulation of commerce among the States, the said commiss on to consist of three Senators, to be appointed by the President of the Senate, and three members of the House, to be appointed by the Speaker, and three commissioners, to be appointed by the President, who shall sit during recess and inquire generally into the conditions that will most favorably effect the transportation of commerce among the States, carried by land and water routes, securing thereby to the people the required facilities at the lowest rates, the greatest certainty and economy in time, and that will prevent unjust discrimination and to report their recommendations to nex Congress

Senator Cameron spoke in support of the resolution.

HOUSE.

After prayer the Speaker stated that he had yesterday submitted a question to the House as to whether Tuesdays Journal should be read before Mondays Journal has been approved. He thought that it would be just and equitable to submit similar questions to the House relative to the reading of Wednesday's Journal.

F. Wood said during his experience in this House he had seen the house many times involved in difficulty similar to present one, and in each case the struggle had been amicably adjusted. In view of the past two day he thought the time had arrived when the members, as sensible men desirous of continuing their legislative labors should pause and come to some amicable adjustment upon this question, he held a position not entirely in sympathy with either side of the House. He hoped, however, that both sides would agree to the proposition which he wished to make, namely: that the Journals of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday should be approved and that immediately thereafter, without debate, the House should vote on the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the committee on Revision of Laws be discharged from further consideration of the bill and that it be referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Blackburn inquired whether the proposition carried with it the right to call for a division of the proposition

Wood replied that there were two distinct propositions, but he hoped the gentlemen, frankly, would not embarrass the matter by calling for a division of the proposition.

Blackburn replied that he had no desire to embarrass the proposition or delay the work of the House, the only point for which he had struggled was to protect the integrity of the Journal. If that were secured he had no further fight to make. He thought that the proposition of the gentleman from New York was entirely fair and he was content with it.

Townshend thought that Wood's proposition was a good one.

OFF FOR INSPECTION.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Gen. A. Dumont, Supervising Inspector of steam vessels, left to-day for Charleston, Savannah and Jacksonville, on business connected with his office.

THE WHIPPING POST.

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 25.—In the Senate yesterday the whipping post bill, which passed the House some time ago, was laid on the table and virtually defeated.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

RICHMOND, Va., March 25.—Information was received last night that John H. Moseley, a highly respected citizen of Charlotte county, was shot and instantly killed Monday night, by Andrew Cassidy It is stated that Cassidy mistook Mosely for a negro with whom he had a difficulty.

SNOW STORM.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 25.—The snow storm which begun yesterdey, continues. It is more severe than any last winter. The snow is over one foot in depth, while there are large drifts in many places. Trains and steamers are delayed by the storm.

Goldsboro Convention.

GOLDSBORO, March 24.—The Republican Executive Committee of the second district after a long struggle chose two delegates to the Chicago Convention. J. B. Abbott and Claybourn Toison, both Sherman men. A. McCabe and E. R. Page, white, were chosen as alternates.

One North Carolinian Murdered in Georgia by Another.

A dispatch to the Charleston News and Courier says:

SAVANNAH, March 23.—In a drunken frolic at a store near Bryan County Courthouse, on Sunday evening, among turpentine hands, Austin Dudley, of Robeson county, N. C., was shot and instantly killed. The murderers escaped. On Monday night the sheriff overtook the suspected men near Chatham county and called to them to halt. The parties fled and were fired upon by the sheriff and posse, and one of them, T. L. Dancy, was shot four times in the left arm and badly wounded. A. Gillespie and T. L. Dancy were then arrested and brought to Savannah to-day for safe-keeping, and lodged in jail. Gillespie is charged with the killing and Dancy as an accomplice. Both are from North Carolina, and have been in Bryan but a few weeks. The former is from Dare county and the latter from Asheville.

By skilful detective work the police have captured the man who has been annoying Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, Rector of Trinity Church, New York, by sending offensive postal cards to him, directing persons to call at his house, &c., as described several days ago. He was captured in Baltimore, and has made a written confession, which we clip from the Baltimore Sun:

"To whom it may Concern: I, Eugene F. Williamson, freely confess that I was the author of the annoying postal cards and letters which were recently posted and delivered in New York. I arrived in New York about the middle of February and remained there about a week. I arrived again about March 14, and remained about a week. On both these visits I wrote and mailed the offensive letters and cards, while staying at the Windsor Hotel, where I registered as E. F. Williamson, Pittsburg. I do not know what in heaven possessed me to do this. Dr. Dix has never injured me, nor have any of the other persons who were annoyed by my wicked act. When I found, by reading the New York papers, the injury I had done, (I did not see the printed reports of my first act until some time after my second visit,) I felt very badly about it, and wrote the letter from the Fifth Avenue Hotel to Dr. Dix, which I afterwards concluded to send to the Tribune, (referred to above,) hoping it would prevent people from calling at Dr. Dix's house. I solemnly declare I did not intend to extort money from Dr. D, or any other person, and did not even answer the 'Personal' which was put in the Herald in reply to one of my letters. I am going to New York voluntarily with Messrs. Gaylor and West I hereby beg the forgiveness of all whom I have annoyed by my misconduct,"

GUILFORD.

GREENSBORO, March 23d.

Weather fine and Spring-like, with a fine prospect for the growing wheat crop.

Trade is good, and large orders are filling with many new goods at wholesale to country merchants

The marriage to-night of the beautiful daughter of the Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, (Miss Jennie,) to Mr. Parks, of Hillsboro, took place in the Methodist E. Church. There were fourteen attendants. Dr. T. M. Jones performed the ceremony, and the happy pair wended their way North at 8 p. m., on an extended bridal trip

Rev. Dr. Craven was to lecture before the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night, but was prevented by sickness. These lectures are highly entertaining and besides brings in a revenue to the Association, an admission of 15 cents being charged, and has lifted a debt off of us.

The past week has been void of news to a great extent, not even a runaway. Yes, I should say Squire Eckel did go over to the McAdoo House this week and make two persons one, (in law) and they went on their way rejoicing.

HARNETT.

HARRINGTON, March 24.—The weather is fair, cool, and windy. Wheat is looking well. Early fall and spring oats are also looking well, while those sowed in mid-winter are generally killed out.

As Mr. Jordan Wicker, an aged and honored citizen of Moore county, was riding along the road near Rev. N. McKay's plantation in Chatham county, last Tuesday, he was instantly killed by a falling tree, and the mule he was riding hurt so badly that it will be of no account. Two other parties who were with him escaped unhurt.

The mutterings and rumblings of would-be candidates is indistinctly heard, but as they have assumed no definite shape we will give no names, as there is yet plenty of time for the chrysalis candidate to become fully fledged before the election.

The "Mud Cut" boom and the sale of the Western N. C. Railroad has no terrors for us down here—being rarely or never mentioned.

Communion service will be held at Mt. Pisgah (Presbyterian) Church on the 17th and 18th of April.

The timber men have returned from Wilmington highly elated with the prices realized for their timber.

The windy weather is causing the earth to dry fast, and the farmers are busy preparing for the coming crop.

I see that a citizen of Fayetteville has made a calculation, and his figures tell him that the world will come to an end to-day. If his predictions come true, though everything looks fair and serene this morning, this will be the last letter ever started to you by

NORTH CAROLINA MINERALS.

Ores May be Obtained by Existing Means of Transportation.

Pittsburg Chronicle.

We are under obligations to Prof. W. C. Kerr, State Geologist, for a copy of the Geological Report of North Carolina. The map of the State, showing its general geological features and the report itself bears conclusive evidence of the pains-taking integrity and comprehensive scientific culture of the head of this important part of the State government of North Carolina.

The economical geology of that State is of great interest to our local industries, as was fully set forth by Professor Kerr in his speech before our Chamber of Commerce, two weeks ago. The subject deserves attentive study in this regard, even aside from the prospective extension of our railway system due South. We mean that, even now, by the use of existing lines of transportation, it may be possible that our iron manufacturers can draw profitably upon the our common country. At a time when we are receiving thousand upon thousands of tons of iron ores from Spain, Africa and Great Britain, it must surely be possible to get the magnetic and hematite veins of the Tar Heel tapped for our consumption.

Dr. J. M. Worth.

Correspondence of the News.

MILLEDGEVILLE, March 8.—Dear Sir:—I propose the name of Dr. J. M. Worth, our present State Treasurer for our next Governor, a more suitable man, and better qualified for this position does not draw the breath of life in North Carolina. If we want the right man in the right place, let us have Dr. Worth.

Very respectfully,
JOS. S. DUNN.

An Attempting to carry off a Child.

A telegram from Milton, N. C., March 20. says, In Person county this morning, as the little three-year-old child of Mr. William Murray was sitting on a stile feeding chickens, a large eagle swooped down on the chickens, scattering them in all directions. As the child was moving off, the eagle made a second swoop, catching the child in its talons, and with its prey rose in the air: but the child was too heavy, and the eagle managed to flutter a short distance to the limb, of a decayed oak. Its talons were so entangled in the clothing of the child that it could not get aloose, and the weight soon made it come down to the ground. The frightened father of the child came up and killed the eagle. The child, save some peed scratches' was uninjured.

The Warsaw Brief Mention says the new bill is essentially the same as the old. Judge Merrimon, one of the best lawyers in the State, says it is worse in some respects. We have seen no paper which opposed it heretofore which favors it now. We have heard of no person who was dissatisfied who is now content. The people and newspapers are not quite as silly as our friends seems to suppse. We are opposed to a sale, but favor Mr. Dortch's bill to complete to Paint Rock, then we can go on and build the Ducktown route. But if sold, we must let it be so done and that there will be no future complications and no chance for fraud.

THE RAILROAD BILL OCCUPIES THEIR ATTENTION.

The Substitute of the Committee Passes it- Second Reading in the Senate.

TENTH DAYS PROCEEDINGS.
March 25th, 1880.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, March 25, 1880.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock a. m., President Robinson in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. J. M. Atkinson.

The journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Senator Scales offered a report supplemental to the report of the committee to superintend the election of Trustees to the University. Placed on the journal.

Senator Bryan, of Pender, introduced a bill to incorporate the Wilmington Market Company. Placed on the calendar.

On motion of Senator Erwin, the rules were suspended, and Senate bill No. 88, was taken up, and passed its third reading.

On motion of Senator Graham, the rules were suspended and a bill to amend chapter 83, laws of 1879, was taken up and passed.

On motion of Senator Dortch, the rules were suspended and a bill to amend section 1, chapter 257, laws of 1879 was taken up, and passed its several readings.

On motion of Senator Brower, the rules were suspended and a resolution in relation to the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad was taken up.

Senator Scales moved to refer to the committee on Finance.

Pendleg this motion, the hour for the special order arrived.

SPECIAL ORDER.

S. B. No. 8—Bill to provide for the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad, and other purposes. The clerk read section 17.

On motion of Senator Williamson, the rules were suspended and a message was ordered to be sent to the House of Represenatives requesting the return of S. B. No. 55—a bill relating to the Atlantic Iron and Steel Manufacturing Company.

Senator Dortch offered to amend section 17 as follows: In line 17 strike out the words, "as by law may be directed," and insert, "if a future Legislature shall so direct."

Senator Dortch explained the effect of his amendment.

Senator Henderson spoke and favored the adoption of section 17, as it now staeds, upon the ground that it did not bind the State, and that it only bound the new organization.

Senator Leach spoke against the adoption of the amendment, and took the position that it would effect no material change in the section, and that the State was not bound, either legally or morally, to complete the road, when the contingency of section 17 arose.

Senator Alexander opposed the amendment.

The Senate refused to adopt the amendment of Senator Dorth, by a vote of ayes 19, noes 27.

The Senate then adopted section 17.

Section 18 was read, and Senator King offered the following amendment Amend section 18, by adding after word "act," in line 26, the following words; "And in no contingency shall the said grantees enforce their said lien for such expenditures, either in law or equity, until the said road shall be completed to the town of Murphy; and if the said road shall never be so completed to said town, then and in that case, the said lien shall never be enforced. but the same shall be treated as stock paid for in the said Western N. C. Railroad Co., for that amount"

Debate then followed, engaged in by Senators Respass, Leach, Dortch and others.

The Senate refused to adopt the amendment by a vote of ayes 19, noes 26.

The Senate then adopted section 18, as read.

Section 19, was read adopted.

Section 20, was then considered, and the following substitute was offered:

"That like total rates of transportation charged over said Western North Carolina Road, and other roads with which it may at any time form through lines of traffic, to or from, or through seaports, in adjacent or other States, shall likewise be enjoyed on traffic to or from, or through, seaports within the State of North Carolina."

"That the foregoing provisions shall apply, as well to traffic interchanged with future connections of said Western North Carolina Railroad, as those contemplated at the time of this agreement."

"That on traffic passing over its line, to or from points within the State of North Carolina, the Western North Carolina Railroad will neither charge, nor participate in higher rates than may be applied on like traffic between points in adjacent States, that are of similar distance from the destination thereof, as are said points within the State."

"That interchange of cars, at junction points, with roads of different gauge, shall be without hindrance; said roads furnishing the necessary trucks suitable to their gauge."

"That the Legislature of North Carolina shall enforce the observance of these conditions, when necessary, by appropriate legislation."

Senator Henderson said: "This substitute amounts to nothing."

Senator Dortch: "If this substitute amounts to nothing, what does section 20 amount to?"

Senator Henderson replied by saying that if section 20 amounted to nothing, the substitute amounted to nothing.

A lively debate then ensued, and, upon a vote, the Senate refused to adopt the substitute. Ayes 20, noes 27.

Senator Dortch then offered the following amendment to section 20:

"That to prevent extortion upon the people of North Carolina, and unjust discriminations, the General Assembly shall have power, from time to time, in its discretion, to enact such laws as may be deemed necessary, for the purpose of regulating the rates of fare and transportation on said railroad and its branches, and to prevent all discriminations against the seaport cities and towns of this State."

The vote of the Senate upon the adoption of this amendment stood 18 for, and 27 against.

Section 20 was then adopted, as read. The remaining sections were then read, and adopted. The bill was then put on its second reading, and Senator Bryan, of Pender, offered an amendment. The amendment followed the fate of all others proposed to this bill, and was lost. The bill then passed its second reading. Ayes 36, noes 11.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED

The following Senators introduced bills and resolutions as follows:—

Mr. Harris—A resolution instructing the Public Treasurer to issue bonds to E. A. Crudup, administrator of Seth Jones, deceased. Referred to the committee on Finance.

Upon unanimous consent, House Bill to amend the charter of the Atlanta & Charlotte Railroad was taken up and put upon its several readings. Passed and ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Covington—A bill to amend chapter 25 section 1 of Battle's Revisal. Calendar.

Jones, of Caldwell—A motion that so much of the Journal as relates to the Norment resolution embodying the Turner charges, (which was tabled a day or two ago) be stricken therefrom.

Norment gave his reasons for introducing the resolutions.

Turner—Hoped the charges would not be erased.

The vote being taken it was ordered that they be stricken from the Journal.

House Bill No. 106—S. B. 34—A bill for the establishment of Graded Schools in the towns of Goldsboro and Salisbury, was put upon its final readings; passed and ordered to be enrolled for ratification.

Upon motion of Mr. McCorkle, Colonel P. B. Means was invited to a seat upon the floor of the House.

House Bill 103—Providing for the relief of Beaufort county, was here taken up and passed. Ordered to be enrolled for ratification.

House bill 99, to incorporate the town of Mebanesville was taken up and passed; also H B 132, to incorporate the town of Randleman's Mills.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message from His Excellency the Governor was here read. The message relates to the Western Insane Asylum and advises that the $10,000, additional appropriation asked for to be granted. The message was sent to the Senate.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE.

Messages from the Senate announcing the passage of S B No's 70, 89 and 94, were here read and placed upon the Calendar.

Also a message asking for the recall of Senate bill 55. Ordered to be returned as requested.

Mr. Covington and others rose to questions of privilege.

Mr. Covinton, corrected a mistake. He said that if the amendment of Mr. Richardson, of Columbus, was accepted, he would vote for the bill.

Mr. Atkinson arose to a question of personal privilege. He said he had seen in the morning papers a report of his colleague in which it was stated that he (Atkinson) did not represent the views of his constituents in trying to get proper guarantees for the completion of the road.

He was willing for his colleague to draw such conclusions as to the will of his people as he might deem proper and he intended to do the same, and was willing to sink or swim as his people might weigh his action; but he knew they demanded guarantees for the completion of the road any bill we might pass, the opinion of his colleage to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE RAILROAD BILL.

House bill number one was again taken up; the question recurring upon the adoption of the amendment, as offerred by Mr. Richardson, of Columbus, to the substitute reported by the Joint Committee.

Mr. Taylor, alluded to the feather that would break a camels back and spoke of the man who had two wives; one an elderly dame and the other a young girl. The young one would pick the gray hairs from her leige lord's head and the elder one would extract the black hairs, the consequence being that the poor fellow soon lost all the hair he had.

He said they had a Bald mountain out west; but he was opposed to their having a bald railroad.

Mr. McCorkle spoke to the amendment.

Mr. Bernard, of Pitt, rose in opposition to the amendment. He regarded it to be a direct stab at the heart of the bill; if you accepted the amendment you killed the bill, and what then?

"You are here for 20 days. What will you do, there being no other proposition? How are you to get money to pay the interest on the bonds even next year, if you refuse this proposition, with a $280,000 deficit in the treasury? If you accept the amendment you kill the bill. If you think you can raise money by special levy, try it on once!" He knew it was hard, but there was no use in disguising the fact that the road had to be sold. He had as much State pride as anybody. The gentleman then proceeded at length and made an appreciable and interesting speech.

Bernard's speech, it seems, was greatly appeeciated by the ladies in the galleries as the following note from them to him fully attests: "The ladies in the gallery beg to be allowed to return their thanks to the gentleman from Pitt for the great pleasure his speech just delivered has afforded them."

Bryson opposed the amendment.

Lindsay opposed the bill as it stood. Thought the House should amend the bill as much as it liked, &c., &c.

Amis opposed the amendment and hoped it would be promptly voted down.

Foy opposed the bill and hoped the Legislature would not sell their rights for a mess of porridge—"if you sell the road you are gone, and, I fear, forever!"

Richardson, of Columbus, spoke to his amendment.

The question then recurring upon the adoption of the amendment, the House refused it by a vote of 41 to 61.

Norment—A resolution for the relief of the tax-collector of Robeson county. Calendar.

Atkinson here offered an amendment to section 18 of the substitute, whereupon Carter moved to adjourn 'til 7:30 o'clock p. m., which was carried.

NIGHT SESSION.

The House at 7:30 o'clock last night met according to adjournment from the morning session

The calendar was resumed and the following business transacted:

House Bill 61, to amend chapter 104 of the laws of 1879 was put upon its final readings, passed; ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

House Resolution 18, in reference to the Kings Mountain celebration was next taken up and put upon its 2nd reading (This resolution provides for an appropriation of $1500.00 by the State.)

Powers formed the passage of the resolution.

Vaughan offered an amendment.

Powers hoped the amendment would not pass.

Jones, of Caldwell, was sorry to notice the disposition on the part of some members to cast ridicule on the subject He favored the passage of the resolution.

Christmas did not think the appropriation should be made.

Powers demanded the previous question. The question recurring upon the adoption of Vaughan's amendment, it was voted down.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of resolutions upon its second reading and the ayes and nays being demanded, resulted as follows: Ayes 48, nayes 37. Passed.

The resolution was put upon its 3rd reading

Brown, of Mecklenburg, offered an amendment to insert $1500.00 instead of $1000.00, lost. The bill was then put upon its 3rd reading and passed. Ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

REGULAR ORDER CALLED.

The regular order was here called, (the Railroad Bill). The question recurring upon the adoption of the gentleman from Buncombe, (Mr. Atkinson).

Covington gave notice that he had a number of amendments to offer.

Norment spoke to the question. He thought the passage of the bill a foregone conclusion! but he wanted to explain his position nevertheless, which he did. He opposed the bill in toto.

(Vaughan, of Alleghany, in the chair.)

Mr. Atkinson asked the reading of this amendment, and the section of the bill it was to amend. He said that his amendment required the purchasers of the road to complete the road to Murphy, and if they fail to do so they cannot mortgage or foreclose a mortgage; that it was a provision looking to the completion of the Ducktown branch—nothing more.

Mr. Clarke favored the amendment, and spoke to the subject. Didn't know anything about Mr. Best and associates; wanted the Ducktown branch built, etc. He said, in reply to a question, that he was in favor of levying a tax upon his constituents for another year and look out for other propositions in the meantime.

Mr. McGehee here spoke to the subject. He reviewed the speeches of some of the members who had preceded him. Spoke of the drafters of this bill, saying they were certainly about as eminent in their profession as most lawyers of this State. He favored the voting down of every amendment to the substitute of the committee. Speaking of other propositions, he said: When were other propositions to be made? In all human probability there was no other offer ever to be made. In reply to a comparison made between North Carolina and New Jersey, he said there was no analogy; that New Jersey was a mere spot compared to North Carolina, which was nearly four times its size. He proceeded at length and made a most eloquent speech, wherein he made unanswerable arguments in favor of the Best proposition

Moring—(Mr. Brown of Alleghany in the chair), here addressed some pertinent remarks to the subject. He opposed the amendment and favored the bill. He came here to sell the road to get rid of taxation for one thing, and for another, because on account of our Western brethren, and thought if they were satisfied with the proposition he ought to be. These people were to have their railroad speedily completed if this proposition was accepted, and if it were not there was no telling when they would get it, &c. That no amendment had been offered to better the proposition as contained in the substitute. He wanted all the amendments voted down and the bill put through as speedily as possible.

Richardson, of Columbus, spoke to the subject. He opposed the proposition, and stated some reasons therefor. He thought the Ducktown Branch of the road would never be built, and that purchasers under this bill could complete the road to Paint Rock, and then sell out, &c., &c. Spoke of his amendment again, and gave additional explanations thereon, and reasons, as he thought, why it should be adopted.

Carter called the previous question, which was ordered.

Davis, of Catawba, here offered an amendment to section 25 of the bill.

Here a number of amendments were handed in, "too numerous to mention;" about twenty, Mr. Covington contributing six of the number.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the amendment of Atkinson, of Buncombe, the amendment was voted down by a vote of 63 to 42.

Jones, of Caldwell said in explaining his vote, he hated to vote as he did, but did it because he believed the Western people were in favor of the substitute, as it came from the joint committee without amendment; he therefore would record his vote against the adoption of the amendment.

The question next recurred upon the adoption of the amendment of Davis, of Catawba. Voted down also—37 to 64.

Lindsay's amendment was next voted down with about the same vote.

A lot of others afterward met with the same fate, and on motion, the House adjourned until this morning at ten o'clock.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Digested for the NEWS by Walton M. Busbee, of the Raleigh Bar.

BY ASHE, J.

Fannie Williams vs. Frank Johnson. } Davie.

Affirmed.

Action to recover land, tried at Fall term, 1879, Davie Superior Court. Verdict for the defendant—motion for a new trial—motion overruled; judgment for defendant; plaintiff appealed.

The testimony of a witness must be excluded on the ground of interest, when that witness may derive a benefit or advantage from the event of the suit, and this may arise to the witness in two cases: first, when he has a direct and immediate benefit from the suit itself; secondly, when he may avail himself of the benefit of the verdict in support of his own claims in a future action. Such testimony is incompetent and there is no error in excluding it from the jury.

There is no rule of law requiring anybody's "moral sense" to be shocked before inadequacy of price can be found. It is a strong expression originally used, and since followed by the courts, to denote the disparity between the consideration and the value of the property sold, that would amount to inadequacy; any other terms that would convey the same idea would have the same effect.

Commissioners of Iredell vs. Bank of Statesville et al. } Iredell.

Affirmed.

The plaintiff declared upon a certificate of deposit, which was as follows: Bank of Statesville No. 1604, Statesville, N. C., May 10, 1875, W. F Wasson has deposited in this bank, one thousand currency dollars, payable thirty days after notice is given. R. F. Simonton, cashier; on the return of this certificate properly endorsed, with interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, if left for twelve months. The certificate was endorsed by W. F. Wasson in blank and he was sued as indorser; it was transferred by W. F. Wasson as sheriff to the treasurer of the county, in payment of taxes due the county, for which he was liable as sheriff. The Bank was considered good at the time of the transfer, and the certificate was the property of the county. It was admitted, the certificate of deposit was a negotiable instrument. Held, "If the certificate was received by the county treasurer in payment of a debt due the county, the act of the county treasurer was the act of the county."

If the defendant wrote his name across the back of the certificate of deposit the law presumed that he intended to make himself responsible therefor, and the burden of proof was on him to rebut this presumption raised by law. If he (Wasson) had satisfied the jury, that at the time he endorsed the certificate, the contract between him and the county treasurer was, that his endorsement was to pass the title only, the defendant was not liable.

No error.

BY DILLARD, J.

State vs. Millsaps. } Graham.

Error.

This was an indictment for an assault To constitute that offense, there must be an attempt to strike or at least an offer to do so. An offer to strike is the lowest degree of violence begun which is indictable: an attempt includes an offer and is one advance beyond towards a battery. If one in anger draw back his fist to strike being within stricking distance it is an offer; but he if draw back and make a lick but miss, it is an attempt.

Where a jury is charged, that if the acts and words of defendant were such as to put a man of ordinary firmness, in fear of immediate danger and if defendant had the ability at the time to inflict immediate injury, he was in law guilty of assault; there is error in such instruction. The charge should have been, that such acts and words did not in law make a case of assault, but only a menance of violence.

Venire de Novo.

Lytle and Bynum vs. John D. Burgin. } Granville.

Reversed.

Ample provision is made in sections 61 and and 65, C. C. P., for bringing before the court all persons who may be necessary to a complete settlement of the question involved, and one of the prominent objects under one system, is to have all questions growing out of an action adjudged and finally determined therein. (Section 61 provides among other things that in an action to recover possession of real estate, the landlord and tenant thereof may be joined as defendants, and any person claiming title or right of possession may be made parties plaintiff or defendants to any such action. Section 65, second paragraph, enacts that in an action for the recovery of real or personal property, a person not a party, but having an interest in the subject, may apply to be made a party and the court may order him to be brought in by the proper amendment.)

Where a third person applies to be admitted a party, claiming adversely to both plaintiff and defendant, the application is within the second paragraph of section 65, C. C. P., and as such it is discretionary to allow or refuse the leave.

At common law every landlord had the right to be admitted to defend with or without the tenant and under the term "landlord" all persons had the right to come in as parties "whose title was connected or consistent with the possession of the occupier and is divested or disturbed by any claim adverse to such possession, and that it was necessary that they should have exercised previously any acts of ownership on the land." The same right of admission exisied under revised code, and is admissible still within section 61, C. C. P.

Error.

McMahon vs. Miller, Adm'r. } Transylvania.

Affirmed.

The plaintiff became lessee to defendants intestate, of a tract of land, for the year 1877 under a written lease executed to him by the lessor, which is referred to in the complaint and offered to be produced. The controverted facts in the case are as to certain duties of plaintiff in person and otherwise which are alleged by the defendant to be terms of the contract on the part of the plaintiff not contained in the lease, and denied by plaintiff. The controverted facts were submitted to a jury, who returned verdict for plaintiff. Defendant moved for a new trial and afterwards, in arrest of judgment.

A party to a contract can not wilfully be in default himself in the performance of matters material on his part and then abandon the contract and turn round and have action to recover for what he may have done, or for a breach by the other caused by his own conduct.

Where it does not appear that a party was prejudiced by a variance between the allegation and the proof, it is not error to refuse a new trival or arrest of judgment for this cause.

Daniel Fry vs. Com. of Montgomery } Montgomery.

Affirmed.

A party may issue to recover a debt due from a county, and in the same action demand a mandamus for its payment. The writ in this case was in form peremptory, but the creditor treated it as an alternative writ and gave notice to the defendant to show cause why a peremptory writ should not issue. The creditor may enforce a return to the writ or not, and may waive or insist on process of attachment for its disobedience. The court will not be actor and ex mero motu compel the actual raising of the money in the case of an individual creditor, but will apply the law and award whatever process the law allows, if moved so to do by the party to be benefitted.

No good reason appears, why the plaintiff, even if the first writ was a peremptory mandamus, might not waive application for process of attachment on the coming in of the return thereto, and have an alias peremptory writ, thus giving defendant another opportunity to obey the command of the law.

State vs. Lou Rayol. } Cumberland.

Affirmed.

After the solicitor and defendant's counsel had announced that they had no objection to those in the box, a juror rose and stated that he had within the last two years served on a jury in that court. His honor ordered him to resume his seat if not objected to; defendant's counsel raised no objection; the Solicitor asked leave to interpose a peremptory challenge for the State, and this after objection by defendants, was allowed by his Honor and the juror directed to withdraw. This ruling of his Honor is sustained by two recent decisions of this court.

Lord et als., Trustees 1st Col'd Baptist Church vs. R. W. Hardie, sheriff. } Cumberland.

Every worshipping and organized body constituting a religious congregation, is, under the laws of this State a quasi corporation with power to appoint and remove at pleasure the Trustees in whom its estate, real and personal, is vested, for the sole use and subject to control and management of the congregation. The trustees are depositories of the naked legal title, with capacity to sue and be sued not generally, but only "for or on account of the donations and property so held or claimed by them," and they are made accountable to the congregation for the use and management of the property they hold and to surrender it to any person authorized to demand it; they do not participate in the employment of a pastor, nor are they liable for his services.

If a sale under a fieri facias against the trustees could have the effect to transfer the legal estate, the purchaser would become a trustee and the trust would follow and attach thereto; the result would be to constitute him in the place of the trustees. A court of equity would interfere to prevent such a proceeding; the court as now constituted will not permit it to be done, that which if done, would effect injuriously the beneficial owners and be of no practical advantage to the party. The trustees not being endowed by law with a capacity to direct the property to other and different purposes, nor, in their corporate character to contract a debt for which they can be taken. The seizing by the sheriff under the writ, of the articles was unauthorized by law and they must be returned.

BY ASHE, J.

Sanders vs. Norris. } Wake.

Venire de novo.

At January term, 1879, of Wake Superior Court, a judgment was rendered for plaintiff; defendant appealed and filed his bond; a statement of the case was made by defendant's counsel and duly served on plaintiff, who made a counter statement, and each was submitted to the Judge presiding to make up the case, who fixed the 15th day of February for a hearing. In the meantime the papers in the case were sent by the clerk of the court to the Judge, but no case has ever been settled by him in consequence of the papers and notes of the trial having been lost or mislaid.

The defendant is entitled to his appeal, and has lost it by no laches on his part: in such cases it is the established practice of this court to order a new trial.

A new trial must be awarded in this case.

ASHE, J.:

A. J. McCurry and wife vs. J. L. McCurry. } Yancey.

Affirmed.

All questions of practice and procedure as to amendments and continuances arising in a trial in the court below, are in the discretion of the presiding Judge, and are not reviewable in this court, unless when the discretion is probably abused.

In actions for slander it is competent for the defendant to show in mitigation of damages, the common report in the neighborhood of the truth of the facts charged.

It is not error when the court refuses the motion to non suit to allow the defendant's counsel to argue the force and effect of the plaintiff's evidence in the midst of a trial. It was held in Stith Lochabil 71 N. C, that it is an improper and loose practice, and should not be tolerated. In that case the motion was allowed and this court granted a venire de novo. In this case the plaintiff proceeded in the trial with prestige of a favorable opinion from the court.

Words not actionable per se, and which can only be made so by inuendo pointing their meaning and giving them a slanderous import; and where they are capable of two interpretations, the one innocent and the other slanderous, it is for the jury to say how the defendant used them.

A State's Right Maintained.

The cause of Charity as represented in the world famed Charity Hospital, of New Orleans, was so ably defended by General. G. T. Beauregard before the Congressional Committee on Post-Office affairs that the constitutional right of the State of Louisiana to create and authorize The Louisiana State Lottery Company to have its monthly drawings without any interference was fully allowed, and the Postmaster-General has directed all Postmasters to forward the letters, registered or otherwise, and postal orders to M. A. Dauphin, at New Orleans, La., or same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City, N. Y., and the next drawing will take place April 13th, when some one will get $30,000 for $5.

In Iowa a colored man cannot be a member of the Legislature. Kansas also debars him from privileges of statesmanship. In both States the Republicans are in an overwhelming majority and in one the negro vote, thanks to the exodus, is quite large. It is about time for Iowa and Kansas to be reconstructed.

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 1880.

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr

MESSRS. MARTIN AND RUSSELL.

We desire to call the especial attention of our brethren of the press to the fact that in the recent debate in Congress on the question of the reference of the bill introduced by Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, abolishing the duty on salt and paper material, to the committe on the Revision of the Laws, instead of Ways and Means, the Republican members from North Carolina voted every time with the tariff monopolists and against the interests of the newspapers.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The satisfactory vote in the Senate upon the passage of the Railroad Bill upon its second reading justified the prediction made in yesterday's NEWS. The thirty-six votes in the affirmative included several Republicans; the vote in the negative was only eleven. The bill will doubtless pass its third reading in the Senate to-day and be sent at once to the House. As the House has already devoted several days to the discussion of the measure and has taken several test votes upon amendments, the most important one yesterday resulting in a majority of nearly thirty, there can be no reason why the Senate bill shall not pass its first and second readings to-day, and be pressed to a final vote to-morrow at the latest.

THE TILDEN CAMPAIGN.

The NEWS does not seek to disguise its hostility to the nomination of Mr. Tilden by the democratic party. It were an ungracious task to recount the reasons which in our opinion would make his nomination by the Cincinnati Convention a fatal error.

But the indications are that his managers are determined to make a fierce fight in the different States for the control of the respective Conventions, with the hope either to nominate Mr. Tilden or to dictate the Convention the nominee. We earnestly desire party harmony and we are willing to make the largest concession to bring about that result, and we should oppose the nomination of any man who could not get the support of the regular democracy of New York.

What we shall insist upon, however, is that the Convention shall not merely meet to register an edict, to accept a candidate, but that there shall be a full and fair discussion of the merits of every name presented, and that the strongest man in the United States shall be placed at the head of the ticket.

THE BLESSED BABY.

We have done a worthy man injustice, and rise to make the amende honorable. Misled by a prevalent rumor, we reported that Dr. Humphrey had left the city d——g both Fitch and the baby. We think from present indications we were in error, for by the next train Dr. H. returned, and has since been most assiduous in his attentions. In fact he has shown more than professional anxiety and with finger on pulse notes with downcast visage every change in the poor little sufferer's condition.

We have no heart to speak of the rapidly approaching dissolution of the babe, or the suffering of the disconsolate trio—Messrs. Fitch, Hearne and Humphrey as they watch its slowly expiring struggles.

Before our readers this morning rush out in slippered feet to learn the tidings of the child, it will in all probabilities have "gone over to the great majority beyond." (We do not allude to the vote on the Railroad bill, but quote one Joaquin Miller.)

But whatever the result may be to Mr. Fitch and the baby we sincerely hope that Dr. Humphry and Major Hearne may be spared for future usefulness.

THE END.

THE PUBLIC ROADS.

We hardly think that there will be sufficient time at the present extra session to perfect the road law of the State. But it is perfectly certain that in the near future there must be a thorough revision of the existing system, if it is ever expected that North Carolina shall develope her resources or attract immigration.

The subject is one which presents the gravest difficulties, and will require practical statesmanship of the highest order to aid in its satisfactory solution. A system or a law entirely suited to a thickly settled community, near the railroads, upon whose roads are rarely found citizens of other States, or distant counties, is utterly inadequate to provide means of inter-communication in in sparsely settled mountain communities, which are used in great part by travellers from adjoining States and counties Again, in certain of the larger counties, where convicts and those sentenced to terms of imprisonment and to the work-house for fines and costs amount to a considerable number, they can be used economically in road building and repairing; but in smaller counties the expenses of guard and maintenance will make the net cost higher than the employment of free labor.

It is true that every man should be taxed to work the roads, but it is also true that every man should not be equally taxed. Should a wealthy man of sixty years of age, or a wealthy woman, pay no tax whatever to keep up the public roads over which their large agricultural products are hauled to market, while the laborer upon their farm is called out day after day to work?

The poll should not be excused or exempt—the labor of the country must bear its proper share of the public burdens, but it should not bear it all.

The efficient Democratic Representative from Wake, Dr. Richardson, introduced at the last session a resolution that we remember to have read, which embodied much practical wisdom. The elaboration of the details would of course be a work of immense difficulty. His idea was that the public roads should be worked:

First, by the labor of prisoners sentenced to jails or to work-houses, whether for fines or costs, or for definite terms, whenever such labor could be worked economically. To this end it was suggested that where the counties were small the law should provide that work-houses might be kept up by several counties jointly, in which all their prisoners could be confined (except of course those awaiting trial), and thus the expense of jail-fees reduced, and their labor utilized. It will not pay to guard two or three convicts. Of course, this does not apply to those sentenced to the Penitentiary, but only those sentenced to labor for a short term, or confined to work out their fines and costs. This labor will not do very much, but as far as it goes it should be utilized. It should be worked for the most part upon the roads leading into the county towns.

Second, the regular hands should be required to work the road a certain definite number of days during the year, which number should not be subject to be enlarged at the discretion of the supervisors or the overseers.

Third, the deficiency if any should be made up by taxation, whether regulated by townships or counties, how to be levied, how expended, and all the other details of which would require careful legislation.

It is unjust and oppressive that the amount of land, of products, of horses, of vehicles, in short, the use that a road is to a man should not be a factor to any extent in determining the tax paid for keeping it up.

We cannot at once launch out into large expenditures for roads, but we can see to it that our roads are carefully laid out, and that all the work done upon them shall be in the direction of a permanent roadway, and not a positive injury, as it often is.

The NEWS raises its slogan for Good Roads and Empty Jails, and asks for assistance in the fight.

WHO BEGAN THIS THING?

We cordially concur with our contemporaries along the line of the W. & W. Railroad who are now very properly calling for harmony in the party, and urging that the division upon the question of the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad shall not be carried into the State convention. We feel sure that it will not, and that after the adjournment of the General Assembly, the matter will cease to distract our councils. We may be wrong, but we cannot help indulging the hope that in the course of a year or so at farthest, the entire State will see and acknowledge the propriety of the course which will be taken by the Legislature upon the matter. But we do not admit that the NEWS has initiated or continued any unnecessary criticism upon the opponents of the bill. We did not throw the first stone. And this reminds us of the little negro who was sent by his master to the orchard for apples. The orchard was the chosen battle-ground of a most mischievous ram, and as Billy started to the tree, he was greatly alarmed to find the ram between himself and the fence, making directly toward him, with evident malice in his eyes. The little negro, as a last resort, made for the tree at full speed, and got to it just as the ram was lowering his head for a fearful blow. 'Round and round the tree the chase went, the negro gradually gaining on the ram, until finally he overtook his woolly adversary in the rear, and grasping his tail with nervous grip, he began to twist it with all his might. In vain the ram struggled to free himself, and as he continued his race around the tree he sang out his note of misery, "Ba-a-a, Ba-a-a!" "Oh, you needn't say 'Ba-a-a,'" retorted Billy, "I wonder who begun this thing!"

Referred to Messrs. Paxton, of Transylvania, and Anderson, of Clay.

Western Reporter.

Mass meetings have been held in Cherokee, Clay, Haywood, Transylvania and Henderson counties, recommending a sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad. A mass meeting was held in Franklin on Saturday, the 6th instant, which passed resolutions endorsing the action of Gov. Jarvis in calling the Legislature together, and recommending a sale of the road. Also expressing their appreciation of Col. W. L. Sanders' able letter. A resolution was also adopted instructing our Senator and Representative, in case a sale was made and there was any general legislation, to ask for fifty more convicts for the Blue Ridge Railroad.

Malarial Diseases

Opinion of Eminent Dr. H. R. Walton, Annapolis, Md.

Golden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef is a most excellent preparation. It is par excellence. Superior to Cod Liver Oil or anything I have ever used in wasted or impaired constitutions, and extremely beneficial as a preventive of Malarial diseases.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.
BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to Jos. S. Fisher, president; W. I. P. Ingraham, vice-president; W. Paine, M. D.; C. S. Gaunt, M. D.; H. J. Doucet, M. D.; R. H. Kline, M. D.; J. R. Holcomb, M. D.; N. R. Lynch, M. D., and M. R. O'Connell, M. D., faculty of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery; also the faculty of the American University of Philadelphia; also Hon. P. A. Bissell, M. D., president of the National Medical Association.

Address Dr. W. H. PARKER, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston Mass. The author may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience.

Seminal Pastille

An entirely New and positively effective Remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotency by the only true way, viz., Direct Application to the principal Seat of the Disease. The use of the remedy is attended with no pain or inconvenience, and does not interfere with the ordinary pursuits of life. This mode of treatment has stood the test in very severe cases, and is now a pronounced success. There is no nonsense about this preparation. Practical observation enables us to positively guarantee that it will give perfect satisfaction. It is conceded by the Medical Profession to be the most rational means yet discovered of reaching and curing this very prevalent trouble. The Remedy is put up in neat boxes, of three sizes. No. 1 (lasting a month), $3; No. 2 (sufficient to effect a permanent cure, unless in severe cases), $5; No. 3 (lasting over three months, will stop emissions and restore vigor in the worst cases), $7. Sent by mail, sealed in plain wrappers. Full directions for using accompany each box.

(Send for a Descriptive Pamphlet giving Anatomical Illustrations, which will convince the most skeptical that they can be restored to perfect manhood, and fitted for the duties of life, same as if never affected. Sent sealed for stamp.)

DR. ROBERTSON, 19 SOUTH EUTAW STREET, BALTIMORE, MD

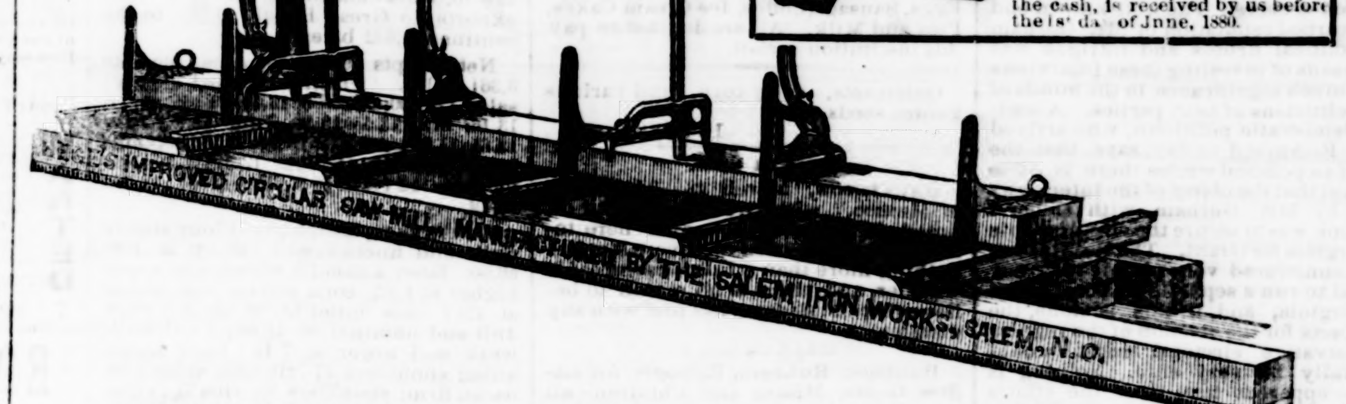

From 15 years experience in hospital and private practice, guarantees a permanent cure in all diseases of the Urinary Organs and of the Nervous System—viz: Organic and Seminal Weakness, Impotency (loss of sexual power), Nervous Debility and Trembling, Palpitation of the Heart, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Pains in the Back and Noctarnal Emissions, etc., all resulting from abuses in youth or excesses in manhood. Diseases recently contracted cured in five to ten days, and the poison entirely eradicated from the system. Also all skin and blood diseases quickly cured. Dr. Robertson, a graduate of the University of Maryland, refers to any of the leading physicians of Baltimore. Special attention given to all female complaints and irregularities.

For Sale.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs. per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

TERMS: One-third Cash; balance on reasonable time.

A Letter from Florida.

One of the party of gentlemen from this city, now on a visit to Florida, writes the following hurried memorandum home: 'Arrived here from Jacksonville yesterday; will leave here for the southern part of this State this evening, down the St. John's River, then up the Attawaha to head of navigation, which is about 175 miles by water. Plenty of oranges and all kinds of vegetables here. No frost here this season. Am wearing a straw hat and my summer suit of clothes; took a sea bath this morning before breakfast; went fishing day before yesterday and caught about forty in ten minutes. Going from here to Silver Springs. Give my love to the boys. This is the oldest town in the United States.

Treating the wrong Disease.

Many times women call upon their family physicians, one with dyspepsia, another with palpitation, another with trouble of the breast, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent doctors, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, they are all symptoms caused by some uterine disorder; and while they are thus only able perhaps to palliate for a time, they are ignorant of the cause, and encourage their practice until large bills are made, when the suffering patients are no better in the end, but probably worse for the delay, treatment, and other complications made, and which a proper medicine directed to the cause would have entirely removed, thereby instituting health and comfort instead of prolonged misery.

Your Favorite Prescription is working almost like a miracle on me. I am better already than I have been for over two years

LORINDA E. ST. CLAIR.

YORKVILLE, Toronto, Ont.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D.:

DEAR SIR:—I write you about a most remarkable cure of a lady friend of mine, Mrs. Ruthorn. Since her marriage thirteen years ago, she has suffered greatly from uterine disease which caused sterility. She tried the most eminent physicians of this part of the country, who told her she would have to undergo an operation with the knife. Being afraid of this, she was induced by reading your Medical Adviser to take your Favorite Prescriptions and Pellets. She used three bottles, as a result she entirely recovered her health and is the happy mother of a healthy babe.

Very truly yours,

Mahone and Grant.

Washington Correspondent Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—A short time since Mr. George C. Gorham, on the occasion of a visit to Richmond, had an interview with General Mahone. Subsequently, when General Mahone came here to Washington in the quiet manner which has already been recorded, Mr. Gorham was one of the prominent Republicans with whom he had conferences. The well known and well-earned reputation of Mr. Gorham for political firness and intrigue was the means of investing these interviews with much significance in the minds of the politicians of both parties. A leading Democratic politician, who arrived from Richmond to-day, says that the belief in political circles there is quite general that the object of the interviews held by Mr. Gorham with General Mahone was to secure the electoral vote of Virginia for Grant. The Readjusters have announced very plainly that they intend to run a separate electoral ticket in Virginia, and, if this is done, the prospects for the election of the regular Conservative electoral ticket would naturally be very slim. Nothing is more apparent here than the efforts which are in operation to work up a Grant furore in Virginia among the intelligent classes, and included among those engaged in it are several citizens of prominence and influence. A veteran and accomplished wireworker of the stamp of Mr. Gorham, and a devoted friend of General Grant, as he is, is the very man to help such a movement. In conversation on the subject to-day Mr. Gorham said he had seen General Mahone, but that his interview related to business matters. The proper interpretation to be put on this must be left to conjecture, although it may be said that the election of General Grant would be a very good business matter for some of his friends.

Wild Ducks.

North Statesville.

We hear of considerable quantities of wild ducks being caught in the trade nets, set in the river below town. We learn of one man who caught at one fishing thirty-two, and and also of another who caught eighteen or twenty. They dive under the water and become entangled in the nets and are soon drowned and when the nets are fished brought to the surface. This is a novel mode of ducking, and one that we have frequently heard of, but never knew it realized until this season, and in such number.

Opinion of a Baltimorean.—I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for some time in my family and found it the best remedy for Coughs, Colds, &c., I ever tried.—Louis Bruning, 26 Caroline st.

The News from Maine.

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, biliousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland Ad.

We write this to correct an error, and do justice to a good article. We stated sometime ago that one of the street lamps manufactured by J. C. Brewster, and sold to the city of Raleigh had exploded. We find on inquiry that there has been no explosion or anything like it, in a year. The occurrence we had reference to was caused by the burner being left open and the oil leaking out, and when the lamp was lighted the oil burned in the lamp. The lamps are the best that ever has been here in use.

This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail. feb27 tf

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him, gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience.

Grocers
AND
Commission Merchants,

No. 1 Fayetteville Street No. 4 Martin Street, and No. 6 Market Square.

AS GROCERS,

We offer to the trade and consumers the largest combined stock of

Heavy and Fancy Groceries

in the city. Without attempting to enumerate, we keep anything and everything to be found in a first class Grocery store.

To meet the increased demand for our Rosaco coffee, we have recently purchased a Hyde's Patent Roaster, of four times the capacity of the one we are now using. We shall thus be enabled to meet the wants of our customers for perfectly Roasted Coffee.

As Commission Merchants.

We have unusual facilities for handling cotton and all manner of country produce in one of our stores being immediately on Market Square, where the bulk of everything in the line is sold.

LIBERAL ADVANCEMENTS MADE ON COTTON AS AGENTS FOR THE BRADLEY FERTILIZER CO.,

We control in this market two of the best Fertilizers manufactured in the United States, both unsurpassed in the cultivation of cotton, corn, wheat and tobacco.

These Guanos have been used by hundreds in this section, and we number among our customers some of the best farmers in the State. We are selling both of them this season for four hundred lbs., cotton, payable 1st October, 1880.

We recommend for stiff clay soil Soluble Fowl Guano, for light sandy soil, Bradley Patent Superphosphate of Lime. Circulars and certificates furnished on application.

A large supply of the very best Grass and Field Seeds.

Red Irish and Sweet Potatoes, which we selling very cheap.
